

CONGRATULATIONS!

You are receiving this notification as a Winner of an ACQ LAW Award for Achievement 2009 in the category of

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR

Law Firms are called upon to assist with transactions throughout the deal process. Helping the corporate team on matters of vital importance in areas associated with the geographical location and the sector that a business may operate within. Regulatory, compliance, property, environmental, fund formation, technology and employment law amongst others all rank high on the agenda. Recognizing the experience and skills that many of the developed nations have, we know how important it is to be recognized as a leader in your field of expertise.

September 2009 - Following the resounding success of the 1st ACQ Finance Magazine Law Awards in 2008 and recognizing the continued importance of the legal fraternity, the magazine is proud to announce the results of its 2nd ACQ Finance Magazine Law Awards for 2009.

Awards are presented across ALL geographical regions that ACQ Finance Magazine penetrates. We recognize and salute the organizations & advisers that have performed to exceptional levels during the most difficult period that the global economy has experienced for decades.

One of the industry's favorite awards events was right to anticipate another record breaking number of votes! Our poll is totally independent. We gave the categories to 34796 of your industry peers. As a category winner, I am sure you would like to join us and thank all who took the time to vote.

The total number of votes received by close of business Friday 28th August 2009 stood at an amazing 4760 representing a 13.6% response rate.

We never forget it's you, the industry, who make the ACQ Awards so special. That's why an ACQ Law Award is considered to be one of the most important prizes to win by recipients, because they're voted for by the only people who truly matter, the industry itself.

Guided by the poll's results our editors have selected those firms and individuals that they think had the greatest impact on the industry in your country in 2008 / 2009. In judging these awards we have studied the nominations made by our voters and recognize that all of those nominated are leaders in their fields but the exceptional performances of some deserve recognition.
